THE EZEKIEL-NICHOLS

COLLECTIONS OF

COINS AND MEDALS

SEPTEMBER, 1905.

AT NEW YORK
GEOFFREY CHARLTON ADAMS
XXII
AUCTION SALE.

OFFICE OF

Geoffrey Chartlon Adams

NUMISMATIST

NEW YORK, U. S. A.

Dear Sirs:—

The Fall Season commences with the XXII Auction Sale of Coins, Medals and Books that we have held in New York City and we trust that among the various and diverse lots contained within these pages, will be found much of interest to all our friends and patrons. The Coins, Medals and Books are the actual property of different consignors and are neither cullings from stock nor junk purchased over the counter at metal value. Please note also that they are each and every one catalogued by us personally and are offered as stated, Absolutely without reserve. Special attention is called to the United States silver, Washington medals and the choice Canadian Coins of which a particularly nice selection will be found in the latter part of the Sale. The U. S. Store Cards are also inviting and we think that it will be many moons before a similar selection will be offered for sale.

Yours truly,

GEOFFREY CHARLTON ADAMS

663 SILVER, 1775 (?). Georgius III, Dei Gratia, mailed, bust r. R. "Honi Soit," etc., suptd. by lion and unicorn, "Dieu et," etc., silver shell with loop, v. fine, excessively rare, LeRoux 832, McLachlin 13, Betts 435, size 3in

This medal, which is of the greatest interest to Americans as well as Canadians, was given during the Rev. War by Gov. Frederick Haldimand, Capt. Gen. and Gov. of the Prov. of Quebec, for the purpose of winning the wavering Indian Chiefs to the cause of Canada. It is said that this particular medal was given to a Chief of the Sioux Indians; at any rate, it came directly from a member of that tribe, where it had been preserved for nearly a century. A medal, similar but inferior to this, brought $69.00 in the Hart Sale, 1895, and one in a N. Y. Sale in 1903 brought $61.50.

CINCINNATI STORE CARDS.

The following collection, A to Z, are all diff. varieties dups. from collec. of Mr. H. C. Ezekiel, mostly in unc. condition, and were all made (except the Kittredge) by John Stanton, Jos. Murdoch or Murdock and Spencer, of Cinn., who in their time struck more of these little mementos of "our late unpleasantness" than any other die sinkers in the country. Nearly all are the scarce varieties of milled edges, and are sold in separate lots as catalogued. Many are very rare.
